Following in Big Footsteps

When Dorothy VanDenburgh first saw R.G. LeTourneau speak in 1968, she was fascinated by his large, ankle-high shoes. Years later when she visited the Longview, Texas, campus she saw those shoes again on display at the museum.

But more than the university founder's choice of footwear, Dorothy was interested in what R.G. had to say about his missionary work and how he generously gave away his money at the end of each year so he could start fresh each new year.

She first heard about R.G. in 1967 while she was teaching at Vacation Bible School. Her first impressions of the man and the university led to a 30-plus-year relationship between Dorothy and LeTourneau University. Dorothy took her first trip to the LeTourneau campus in 1969 with her oldest son Skip, in hopes he would attend. Skip did not attend LeTourneau, but Dorothy continued to support the university in various ways.

"I was impressed with the students and the university," Dorothy said. "I knew these students were getting the best education and learning to grow spiritually."

Dorothy VanDenburgh

Eighty-five-year-old Dorothy lives in Williamsburg, Va., and attends "vigorous" aerobics four times a week. She also serves as a greeter at the Williamsburg Community Chapel and helps with worship services at a local nursing home, something she's been doing for the past 35 years.

Dorothy continues to be impressed with the Christian education offered at the university. She's also been giving consistently to LeTourneau, creating a living trust in 1997. "I live thriftily so I can give to the Lord," Dorothy said.

Dorothy is a strong prayer warrior on behalf of "God's university," her favorite way of describing LeTourneau University with a twinkle in her eye.

Yes dear friend, those "big shoes" are still on display at the R.G.

museum here on campus and yes, like Dorothy, we invite you to put feet to a plan of your own designed to benefit Christian education at LeTourneau University beyond your lifetime here on earth.

New Direction in Athletics

Dr. Duane Trogdon
Athletic Director

Written by Shane Meling

LeTourneau University athletics have undergone several changes in 2003-04 with the reorganization of athletics under Vice President of Student Services Doug Wilcoxson and the hiring of new Athletic Director Dr. Duane Trogdon and new coaches Troy Edwards (women's soccer), Anita Fennell (volleyball) and Tom Wait (men's soccer).

The new coaches and top leadership are energizing athletics at LeTourneau.

Edwards brings youth and enthusiasm to the women's soccer program and is excited about his nine returning starters. Fennell takes over a team that struggled at times because they were so young, but with an extra year of college experience should be much improved. Wait was an assistant coach, but now has added some top-level recruits and transfers to bolster the squad for the 2004-05 season.

Returning running coach Minnette Langley says her track teams are poised for a very good year. The men's team returns three of its top five runners and women's team is shaping up into the best one in years. Langley enters her sixth season as the head cross-country coach.

Veteran golf coach Dr. Andy Woodring had both men's and women's teams that had their most successful seasons last year. The men finished the season with a third place finish in the conference and a national ranking of 22nd according to GolfStat. The men return their top five players and should be a force on the national level for the next few years. The women have a number of promising young players who could be a strong foundation for the future.

The biggest change in the athletic department in 2003-04 has been the hiring of Dr. Trogdon as the new athletic director. Trogdon has some definite goals and plans for the future, which he shared during a short interview:

What is your vision for the future of LeTourneau athletics?

"We are pretty young in the NCAA Division III process at LeTourneau. In the next decade, I would like to see us move to another level of competition, especially within the conference. I would like to create stability in the athletic department, both financially and in low coaching turnover. Another very important issue for me is that I want student-athletes' experiences to be maximized while at LeTourneau."

Who has been the biggest influence on you and your career?

"Dr. Rex Brown, my former baseball coach and athletic director at Southwest Baptist University. He empowered me to become their head coach in baseball and basketball and later launched the football program there."

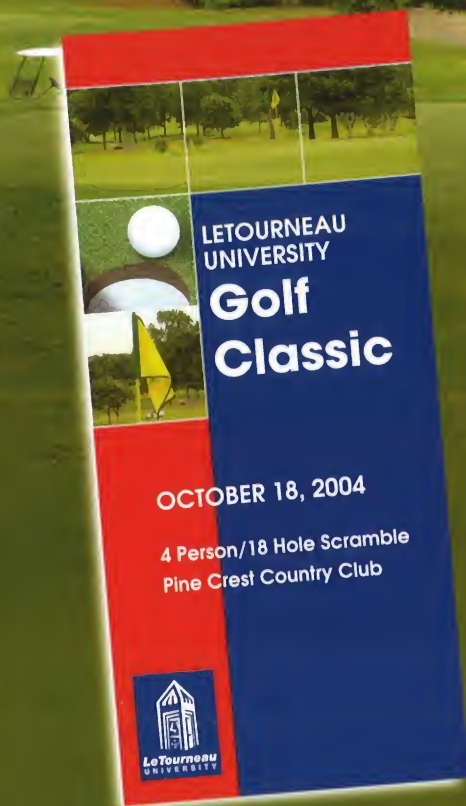

You have been a head coach in the past, what is your fondest memory of coaching?

"Getting phone calls from former players I coached maybe 15 years before, and they tell me about their lives and families. The relationship I developed with my players has always been of utmost importance to me."

What are some things that the students, faculty, alumni and fans of LeTourneau athletics can get excited about this season?

"For people to become excited about athletics, it means that the teams are successful. We think with these new coaches, we will be more successful. I am excited about being a part of that."

LETOURNEAU UNIVERSITY Golf Classic

OCTOBER 18, 2004

4 Person/18 Hole Scramble
Pine Crest Country Club

You will never again have a chance to participate in the first annual LeTourneau University Longview Golf Classic. To inquire, have a brochure sent, sponsor a hole or donate a door prize, call Terry Zeitlow at 903-233-3813 or e-mail him at terryzeitlow@letu.edu.

LeTourneau Admissions Ambassadors

What's it really like to attend LeTourneau? Is living in a residence hall fun? Is there anywhere good to eat in town? How do you pronounce LeTourneau?

Questions like these are best answered face to face rather than in a brochure. That's why we've created the LeTourneau Admissions Ambassadors program to connect future LeTourneau students with alumni, parents and friends of the university. Choosing the right college is a big step in a young person's life. We want to make it as personalized as possible.

We know you lead a busy life, but becoming a LeTourneau Admissions Ambassador won't take up a lot of your time. We provide you with all the training materials you need to start in your role as an ambassador.

Talk to students at your old high school, attend career fairs or just share information about LeTourneau with your church family. The location isn't important. The personal contact is.

To become a LeTourneau Admissions Ambassador, call Vanessa Bogran, coordinator of the LAA program, at 866-874-5388 or send an e-mail to LAA@letu.edu.

YOU CAN HELP LETOURNEAU UNIVERSITY GROW!
